Live Demos, Meet & Greet, FREE Prizes, Food and Drink!

Do you love audio and video? Want a chance to mingle with fellow Audioholic forum members and staff and experience live demos of products you've been reading and hearing about for years? Now's your chance.

This year, we're bringing it down to earth for a more intimate "listening" event in appreciation of the audiophile experience. We'll be gathering at the Lake Tarpon Resort in Palm Harbor, Florida.

We have the entire wing of this lovely resort configured to host demo rooms for you to see and listen to some of the newest A/V Systems on the market. This is a casual event, with no formal dress code or assigned seating.

Demo Rooms from Some of the Biggest Names!

Demos, demos and more demos! Dedicated sound rooms mean you can listen to the latest and greatest gear from our event sponsors while also checking out equally great video demos too.

More sponsors are signing on every week, but currently they include:

- Emotiva
- Epsom
- Hsu Research
- Salk Sound
- Angel City Audio
- EMP Tek
- The Audioholics Store
- Aperion Audio
- Oppo Digital
- Severtson Screens
